What's New in the Clipify?

This is an excellent (albeit a bit buggy) video editor. It's a customizable video editor for vimeo videos. Support cross-browser editing. It can handle up to 10 tracks; adds some cool features like 360 video editing, image cropping, and multiple videos on the timeline. The interface is simple; the more beginner-friendly than other options It's free; however, has ads. Pros 1. Support cross-browser video editing. 2. It's a customizable video editor. 3. It's easy to use. 4. Clean and well-organized interface. Cons 1. It's buggy; it's written in Java, so it needs a decent browser to run. 2. A few ads. Other than that, it's a really good program! A New Year's Resolution For You! The New Year's resolution is one of the most popular things on people's list for most of the year. But what does New Year's really mean?
